

The Call of the Savior

TRIAL VERSION

by

True Dragon Celestial Tribe
Goddess Maitreya

Boxing Day 2023 Global Simultaneous Release

Price: USD13.14

The pricing of this book is set at USD 13.14, a figure determined by the universe itself! When I asked if it sounded similar to the phrase "一生一世" (lifelong) in Traditional Chinese, I received a smile in response.

This book will be available in both Traditional Chinese and English versions, utilizing blockchain technology for distribution.

This book will be distributed worldwide, except in Mainland China and Hong Kong.

This book will only be available in Traditional Chinese and English versions. There won't be a Simplified Chinese version, as Simplified Chinese is a script created by a devil reincarnated on Earth. As a Goddess, I won't use a script created by a devil to write this book. I hope readers understand this point.

Of course, devils often use atheism as an excuse and attempt to explain that individuals in the human realm lack respect for nature, the cosmos, and deities. Such a worldview inevitably leads to failure and, after death, to punishment in Hell, teaching the importance of respect. Must we truly face an apocalypse or death to awaken to this realization?

"Everyone must face death; this is the content written by the Goddess. As for its accuracy, I can guarantee it to the souls of Hong Kong who have sacrificed their lives for the sake of democracy."

Preface

As the prophecies of the Bible intertwine with the Maitreya of Buddhism and the legends of saints from both the Western and Eastern traditions, the Taoist Purple Micro Star and the Eternal Kingdom take on a profound significance in the cosmic context. Delves into the convergence of these prophecies, unveiling the multifaceted aspects of Maitreya, the Goddess of Salvation. By analyzing the scriptures of the Bible, Buddhist scriptures, and the legends of saints from Western and Eastern traditions, we peel back the mysterious veil of the universe, exploring the possibilities of the Eternal Kingdom. This exploration also encompasses the mention of the savior Mahdi in Islam. Join us in unraveling the sacred mysteries of the universe and the diverse existence of the savior, the Holy King of Myriad Wheels

As a native of Hongkonger, hailing from a place renowned as the "Pearl of the Orient," known as Hong Kong, unequivocally distinct from being called a Chinese. I do not adhere to any notion of a "Chinese Hongkonger."

Growing up from childhood to adulthood, I received an education rooted in British principles, instilled with values of integrity and ethics. Most Hongkongers diligently work to shape Hong Kong into a global city. Of course, like anywhere in the world, there are both good and bad individuals, and Hong Kong is no exception.

Present-day Hong Kong is witnessing government officials who are solely focused on their own career advancement, sacrificing Hong Kong's legal framework, democratic values, and ideological beliefs.

They have also channeled various interests into the pockets of the ruling class in Mainland China. They forcefully demand Hongkongers to accept a devaluation of our identity and values, aligning with the arrogant and disrespectful education indoctrinated by the ruling class in Mainland China.

These officials may believe that every penny they earn is an opportunity given by the Chinese people, and therefore, everyone who earns money should be grateful to China. However, it is worth noting that over 90% of these officials lack cultural cultivation, have limited wealth, yet consider themselves superior. They forget the principle of equality for all and the fundamental principle of equal and mutual respect in interpersonal relationships.

Goddess Maitreya solemnly assures that from the moment of death, every soul can personally experience the principle of equality: identity, status, wealth, knowledge—none of it matters. Before the judgment, there is only goodness and evil!

To these Hong Kong officials, I say with certainty, you are destined for hellfire. The people of Hong Kong have never needed you to enforce the National Security Law or the sinister version of national education imposed by the rulers.

Genuine love for Hong Kong and one's nation stems from the heart and is manifested through concrete actions, rather than mere lip service.

Violence and conflict themselves are devoid of inherent right or wrong; it's the actions and choices that matter. Every individual must confront the karmic challenges associated with their actions.

Earning money is a challenge that each individual must confront, but the crucial factor lies in how we earn it. The means by which we accumulate wealth should not be driven solely by self-interest and unethical practices. Earning tainted money devoid of morality, I can assure you, the universe will compel you to repay it through various means, ultimately leading to a price that is paid through overspending.

I am no exception; I must confront the issue of money. I can amass wealth on a global scale without relying on the regions of China and Hong Kong. These places exploit laws to further their own interests, such as the Hong Kong National Security Law, which suppresses dissenting voices and forces people into submission.

Just because a motorcyclist hoisted a banner proclaiming "Liberate Hong Kong, Revolution of Our Times," a shameless judge appointed under the National Security Law sentenced them to nine years in prison, a punishment heavier than some murder cases. Sentencing should be based on evidence and motives, rather than being founded on a mere slogan.

Being accused of crimes against the nation and subversion based solely on eight words, does it imply that this nation is so fragile that it crumbles at the slightest breeze? Of course, Chinese and Hong Kong individuals possess the flexibility to utilize diverse methods, transcending the geographical boundaries of China and Hong Kong, and readers who wish to purchase will undoubtedly discover a way.

Even though I can't hear any sound, there's always a play of "Glory to Hong Kong" in my mind. It's as if the departed souls of Hong Kong are still calling on me to speak up for them.

When the universe bestowed upon me the "Mirror of Truth" as my artifact, I once attempted to ask this mirror if it was possible for Hong Kong to become an independent nation.

In the mirror, four scenes unfolded.

Four images appear in the paid

The Growth Journey of the Archangel

My growth journey is a transformative path that began with my awakening. Upon realizing my identity as an angel, I embarked on this remarkable journey. I presided over more than 20 major judgments and undertook numerous endeavors to educate wayward souls. Among these, the most pivotal was my successful transformation of a doctor who lacked compassion and ethics into a virtuous and compassionate healer.

It was this transformation that propelled me into becoming an Archangel. Subsequently, my journey led me to a new phase, where I encountered various challenges in my interactions with earthly friends. Troubled by a series of setbacks, I decided to visit my friend's celestial palace "soul temple" to uncover the root causes of these issues.

There, I encountered approximately 40 souls with unresolved karmic debts and proceeded to elucidate the workings of the cosmic laws.

I explained the principle of one life to repay one life, emphasizing that every soul should use the cycle of reincarnation to settle their debts. I provided intricate details on the countless methods of karmic debt repayment and shared examples that I had personally witnessed.

Some souls, in their successive reincarnations, became adversaries to seek karmic retribution in various ways, sometimes requiring two, three, or even more than ten opportunities to reconcile. I stressed that every individual should be willing to accept help, as everyone had, at some point, incurred debts. I asked, "Have you repaid your debts?" But not a single soul responded.

I explained that, whether the debts were benevolent or malevolent, all individuals must confront their karmic lessons and settle their debts. In the end, all 40 souls accepted my guidance. Using my magic, I opened a small portal to the afterlife, giving these souls a chance for reincarnation. This opportunity was exceedingly rare, but eventually, they unanimously agreed not to haunt the living as vengeful spirits but instead to embrace the karmic lessons arranged for each soul by the universe.

As the final soul expressed gratitude and departed, the cosmos cast a radiant golden light directly upon me in the celestial palace of the afterlife, illuminating me in resplendent glory. Many other angels came forth to pay me their respects, acknowledging my ascension to become a Goddess.

Ultimately, I personally sealed away two ancient demons with spells that had persisted for 15,000 and 13,000 years in eternal damnation, completing my journey to become a Great Goddess.

In this lifetime, I have encountered a myriad of earthly challenges, which can undoubtedly be described as the most enriching of all experiences, as you will discover throughout the pages of this book.

I transitioned from being an angel to being promoted by God to the rank of Archangel. Subsequently, I ascended within the cosmos, transforming into a being radiating golden light, no longer appearing in the form of an angel.

This journey continued until I vanquished the most formidable demons in the cosmos on two occasions, sealing them permanently within eternal damnation, and once again earned a promotion.

In a parallel world, although I lost the ability to hear and could only perceive images, different deities would appear before me, and each of them would say one phrase, "Congratulations!" This was the only message I could hear. Once I shed the confines of my earthly vessel upon my passing, I shall undertake the task of confirming my true identity.

The earthly realm serves as the most profound training ground. The cosmos, with its higher dimensions than the heavenly realm, is another, even grander arena for personal growth. Whether one can enter this arena depends on their abilities and prowess.

The heavenly realm serves as an intermediary zone, a stepping stone towards embarking on grander cosmic adventures.

In the cosmos, the highest latitude is the angle of eternity, a domain where not even God Jehovah can freely enter without the proper cosmic authorization. Interestingly, Jesus holds the freedom to come and go as He pleases.

During my time in the heavenly realm, I frequently heard about the crucifixion of Jesus occurring repeatedly. I inquired of the cosmos how many times this had happened, and the answer astounded me—over 17,000 times, transpiring in various diverse universes.

While God has certain limitations, when it comes to the apocalypse and the destruction of the world, the cosmos bestows upon Him absolute authority.

Entities, both otherworldly and cosmic, who found me disagreeable, waged wars and challenges against me. To say that it became a matter of life and death would not be an exaggeration. Perhaps it was an opportunity to prove one's capabilities.

Every time I descended to the 18th layer of hell, the Hell's Angels, who typically began by asking, "How would you like to execute the punishment, Great Archangel?" had changed their tune to "Quadrablend Goddess Maitreya ", how would you like to execute the punishment?"

The cosmic fairies or messengers who found me disagreeable bestowed upon me a unique nickname, the "Goddess of Revenge." I neither loathe nor resist this moniker.

Special Note

Whenever the universe or God summons me, I suddenly feel dizzy, and upon closing my eyes, I find myself in a different space altogether. This time, God introduced me to a distinguished guest dressed in Islamic attire. I asked if this person was another God, the true God, Allah? He nodded in affirmation.

Due to my limited knowledge of Islam, I naturally posed some questions I had encountered during my time on Earth—such as whether Islam prohibits the consumption of pork. He confirmed this and addressed common questions about the content of the Quran.

After presenting these earthly queries, I inquired of the true God, Allah, whether messengers had been sent to Earth.

"The true God, Allah, has conveyed that over ten envoy delegations will be sent to collect inquiries from the faithful in the earthly realm. These envoy delegations will then provide unified responses to these inquiries.

As for why God introduced me to the true God, Allah, it originates from a concept known as 'holy war,' which claims that after death, one will enter heaven, where seventy-two virgins await as rewards for soldiers. Looking at it from a rational perspective, this concept appears to have been maliciously altered, much like the contents of the Bible.

In this absurd world, it is rather pointless to ask the true God, Allah, about such matters. However, the reality in this bizarre earthly realm is that such ideas are used to attract warriors.

Of course, the true God, Allah, has provided a resounding rejection of such notions. The fate of these evildoers is ultimately a judgment leading them to eternal damnation."

Furthermore, during an international conference, a legislator condemned Israel for not ceasing its warfare and simultaneously cried out for the true god, Allah, to punish Israel. This legislator, however, suffered a heart attack on the spot, and I confirmed with the true god, Allah, that it was indeed His punishment!

I must emphasize that the aforementioned content has been written with the approval of God and the true God, Allah.

Regarding the issue of homosexuality, the information I received is that it is not permitted by any deity. According to the laws of the universe, every person, with each incarnation and rebirth, must confront the challenge of living as either male or female. If one cannot properly handle this challenge in their lifetime or accept their physiological gender, then in the next reincarnation, they will continue to do so.

However, each subsequent reincarnation will be more challenging, until one can fully embrace their birth gender, thus completing one of the lessons of that particular lifetime.

The day after I inscribed this sentence in the trial edition, the universe summoned me, and I beheld the presence of God, Jehovah.

He was furious with me, but I remained steadfast in my principles of creation. In fact, I acknowledge our differing viewpoints, and I anticipate resolving these discrepancies with Him face to face in the afterlife. I might appear audacious, but that's because I have been chosen by all the guardian deities of the celestial realm, each bestowing upon me a token called the "Tiger Emblem," numbering around 30,000,000 in total. Possessing this emblem implies not only the authority to lead all celestial commanders in the cosmos but also the readiness to make sacrifices.

At that time, I asked myself a question: am I afraid of death? The answer is, death is not frightening. What concerns me is whether the sacrifices made are worthwhile. Nonetheless, I am willing to be that person.

Of course, upon receiving the "Tiger Emblem," I heard a phrase, "In the field of battle, they may choose to follow or not." This means that before any battle commences, they have the right to disregard my command, even potentially causing instability in the ranks.

Perhaps I was still functioning as a high-ranking angel at that time. I resolved to implement an alternative mode of governance, which is disclosed in the "Celestial Chronicles" within the premium edition. Certainly, the reason is that nearly 90% of the gods in the celestial realm are of the celestial clan, including God and the majority of divine messengers. They are all integral members of the celestial order.

God, Jehovah, expressed His concern that many people today are disrespectful towards Him. He asserted that upon their deaths, they will be sentenced to different tiers of hell for penance, with the objective of learning respect towards God.

In my understanding, the actions and attitudes displayed by individuals on Earth will be reckoned with one by one after their demise. They will be accountable for the consequences of their actions.

Quest in the Heavens: Encounters with Deities and Prophecies

About a month before the publication of this book, while working on the formatting of the paid version, I heard a voice within me.

"熟讀馬前課 Ma Chien For " was pronounced in Cantonese (Yue Chinese). I couldn't help but wonder, "Are you Zhuge Liang? Can you speak Cantonese?" He nodded in response.

As someone who is entirely unfamiliar with classical Chinese and Classical Chinese literature, I asked him if this was a prophecy intended for the world. He smiled and nodded in confirmation.

At one point in the heavenly realms, I sought guidance from Mr. Zhuge Liang, who resided deep within a bamboo forest in the celestial realm, living a life of seclusion.

He was a member of the Celestial Tribe. During my time as an angel, I sought Mr. Zhuge's assistance, even though I couldn't hear voices. Instead, I brought my magical tools and sword to "Mr."

I affectionately referred to him as "Mr." and he extended his hand willingly, aiding me in using the mysteries of the I Ching to ensnare and perplex demons. At that time, my magical abilities were not particularly advanced. While "Mr." played the Guzheng, leaves danced through the air. I was lent a prince by the Dragon King of the Eastern Sea, who, following the music's rhythm, gracefully wielded the sword, creating a beautiful scene.

In the heavenly segment of my life, there's a particular recorded episode involving my friendship with Zhuge Liang and the author of "The Art of War," Sun Quan. All of this has a special significance.

"Ma Chien For 馬前課" is a legendary book of prophecies, attributed to the famous strategist Zhuge Liang during the Three Kingdoms period in ancient China. What sets "Ma Chien For" apart is its remarkable regularity in its prophecies. Each chapter predicts a specific historical era and is organized in chronological order, mirroring the historical development.

The first ten chapters of the prophecies cover different periods in Chinese history, from the Shu Han dynasty to the Qing dynasty. These chapters accurately describe the rise and fall of these eras and key events, and their predictions have been verified by historical facts, earning them a reputation for exceptional accuracy.

The last four chapters of the prophecies pertain to contemporary and future events, offering insights into the potential destiny of China and the world. They mention the emergence of a sage, a period of global unity and peace following tribulations, and the resurgence of Chinese culture.

Exploring the Universe and Multiverse

From time to time, I receive summons from the Divine. Every time I arrive in a celestial chamber, God presents to me a series of visions, each occurring in different timelines, collectively known as the multiverse. God uses hand gestures to transition between these temporal vistas, akin to how we swipe on a computer to navigate between different pages.

Guided by the Archangel Uriel, I've been taught to open black holes, which enables me to traverse various timelines at will. When God calls upon me to preside over grand judgments, He seamlessly transports me to the designated temporal space. All I need to do is enter that space and carry out my mission.

Before commencing the work of the Great Judgment, There was a scene in the Ten Commandments where God sent a great angel to kill the firstborn. I expressed my inability to do this. He repeatedly showed me the same scene without letting me stop.

Every time I closed my eyes, it appeared before me. It wasn't until the 7th time that I picked up the sword and killed the one holding the baby, but the baby was a demon in disguise.

From that moment, I raised the sword and officially began the Great Judgment. The grand judgments encompass diverse timelines, including ancient epochs, modern eras, interstellar conflicts, encounters with dwarves, elves, and instances of brutal cruelty among animals, to name a few. Nevertheless, they all share a common nexus; upon passing, the souls journey to the same place – the afterlife and, in some cases, the realms of damnation – where they face judgment and, if necessary, retribution. In another scenario, if a person leads a lifetime of virtuous deeds, a different group of messengers from the heavenly realms will escort them to the realm of paradise. These departed souls will be allocated residences within paradise, where they will reside, anticipating their next cycle of reincarnation.

Blockchain Technology

Blockchain technology is like an unalterable public ledger, except that it's in digital form. Imagine a large digital file that contains all transactions, information, or records. This file isn't stored on a single central server but is distributed across millions of computers. Each of these computers has an identical copy of the file, and whenever new information is added, all copies are updated simultaneously. This decentralized system ensures the security and transparency of data.

Advantages of blockchain:

1. Security: Blockchain uses highly encrypted technology to ensure that data cannot be accessed or tampered with unlawfully. This means that your personal information and transaction records are more secure.

2. Decentralization: There is no central controlling authority, which means no single company or government can monopolize the system. This encourages more transparency and fairness.

3. Transparency: All transactions and records can be publicly accessed, eliminating the possibility of misconduct and increasing trust.

4. Traceability: Blockchain technology can record the origin of every transaction, which helps combat fraud and unlawful activities.

Today's Smartphones and Tablets:

Today, most smartphones and tablets come with built-in blockchain applications or the ability to download related apps. These apps allow you to participate in blockchain networks, conduct digital currency transactions, or store important data and documents while maintaining security and privacy.

So, without requiring advanced knowledge, as long as you have a smartphone or tablet, you can start enjoying the benefits of blockchain technology.

Protection of Intellectual Property

In the later stages of producing this book, I received over a dozen messages from the multiverse, and they wished to engage directly with me to discuss formal written publishing matters. I will take these requests seriously and provide the necessary support based on the actual conditions in different spacetime dimensions, including various areas such as technology and talent training.

What is Blockchain Technology?

Blockchain technology is a way of storing and safeguarding the content of the book across interstellar dimensions. I chose to employ blockchain technology to ensure the integrity and accuracy of the book's content and to prevent intentional alterations or deletions of the printed version.

I explained to them that for printed books, even changing a single word could lead to a complete alteration of the content. Such alterations are not something I want to happen in my book, as it includes conversations between me and the God, which are of utmost importance. I do not wish to see my book modified by malevolent individuals, much like how the Bible has been altered.

As an example, I pointed out that recalling one printed book is relatively straightforward, but what if there were a million copies? This conclusion is based on my experiences from numerous grand judgments. Therefore, my book will not be published in printed form. I understand that some individuals may modify or remove book content in pursuit of financial gains and political approval, but I stand by the principles of artistic freedom and will not compromise.

Someone is bound to ask: What about the current Bible? To this, I received an answer from the Lord: A secret.

Cosmic Justice Unveiled: The Goddess Maitreya's Revelation

Dear Readers,

I am Maitreya, the Great Goddess, and I write to bring to your attention a man from mainland China named Li Hongzhi Imposter. This individual claims to be the savior, consistently asserting persecution by the Communist Party and misleading the public. He has established a global cult based on false universal transformation and qigong -Falun Gong , attempting to deceive followers with the theory of "offsetting good deeds with bad." Through the Mirror of Truth, I have discovered that he conspired with three others to create a fraudulent religion for financial gain, falsely claiming persecution by the Communist Party to attract believers and deceitfully assuming the title of "savior" to recruit followers worldwide. Despite being a mere ordinary soul and not a member of the celestial tribe, he disguises himself using universal laws—a distortion of the truth.

When my book is officially released, the universe will allow me to address the world at specific times. If China Li & Taiwan Chen, Imposter dares to mislead people as the savior and continues to accumulate wealth, I guarantee that, before his death, I will have already reported to the underworld, sentencing him and his associates to the 1-18 layers of hell. Each layer will bring its own punishment, with me personally delivering additional penalties in hell, including severing hands, feet, gouging eyes, and extracting the heart, for he has lost all sense of conscience. Regardless of his appearances in the human realm, facing me, the Great Goddess, he will undoubtedly find no resting place. I am renowned as the "Avenging Goddess," and I will not tolerate the use of the savior's name for deception, demanding that Li Imposter repay a hundredfold and a thousandfold. The savior has never stipulated a requirement to be male, and I, as the "True Dragon Celestial Tribe," can traverse all realms, initiating "world-ending" events.

Even if Li Imposter and his associates reincarnate, I guarantee that each life will be lived in unbearable circumstances. All gods, demons, monsters, and beings in the multiverse are under my governance. Li Imposter and other fraudsters should clarify their actions when my book is published, refraining from distorting facts with universal laws, confusing right and wrong, and deceiving the innocent. Otherwise, the predictions made by the Great Goddess Maitreya will undoubtedly come true. Regarding the counterfeit savior, Li Imposter, and his cohorts, the Maitreya Goddess has personally visited the underworld to meet with Yama, the King of Hell, requesting an immediate gathering of officials responsible for managing departed souls. Upon arrival in the underworld, the officials in charge of registration will open the Mirror of Truth. Regarding the counterfeit savior, Li Imposter, and his cohorts, the Maitreya Goddess has personally visited the underworld to meet with Yama, the King of Hell, requesting an immediate gathering of officials responsible for managing departed souls.

Upon arrival in the underworld, the officials in charge of registration will open the Mirror of Truth.

This will showcase your wicked deeds and deceptive methods to the main officials, with the Chief Judgment Officer personally overseeing the trial. The Great Goddess will descend to administer additional punishments, condemning you for deceiving the kind-hearted public under the guise of the Goddess (Savior). There will be no forgiveness or mercy. Compared to other creators, you will undoubtedly face punishments a hundredfold and a thousandfold.

I have reported to the underworld's Yama King and relevant officials, exposing a scam in Taiwan involving an individual claiming to be a savior and their accomplices, including a father-son duo and a male friend.

The scammer goes by the name Chen Jinlong and attempted to establish an organization called "Maitreya Unified Teaching."

This fraud has been reported to officials responsible for each level of hell and will be dealt with accordingly. After the scammer's demise, they will face punishment in the 1-18 layers of hell, with additional judgment and penalties administered personally by the Maitreya Goddess.

Every evil soul or demon who has falsely claimed to be a savior will be personally punished by the Maitreya Goddess. Regardless of their location, whether in the underworld, hell, or the multiverse, no one can escape the karmic consequences of falsely using the savior's name.

Note: Traitors who tamper with the contents of the Bible and the Quran on Earth have already faced judgment from two creators: Jehovah, the God of the Bible, and the true God, Allah. They have been sentenced to eternal punishment in hell to cleanse themselves of various sins.

Please take heed, Goddess Maitreya

Mirror of Truth: Maitreya Goddess's Cosmic Revelation

The universe has issued a command, instructing the goddess Maitreya to reveal to all people on Earth the global religious movement Falun Gong, founded by the deceiver Li Hongzhi. The intention is to caution humanity against the deceptive methods employed by Li Hongzhi that can harm individuals. As Maitreya faces the world, she embodies the true savior, standing before people across the globe. Exposing a scam in Taiwan involving an individual claiming to be a savior and their accomplices, The scammer goes by the name Chen Jinlong and attempted to establish an organization called "Maitreya Unified Teaching."

The Divine Maitreya has received cosmic messages and has been summoned to the universe. I always stand on the side of justice, supporting the Israeli people in defending their homeland. The Chinese Communist Party, especially "Xi Jinping - Xi Baozi Pooh," pursues its own interests in secret, enticing nations from all directions to besiege Israel.

Witnessing the cosmic revelations, Xi Baozi Pooh, your days of rule are numbered, and Divine Maitreya will unveil the prelude to this.

While mercy is often associated with divine beings, it must also be exercised when the time is ripe. I am Maitreya Buddha, having encountered the cosmic reality with Gautama Buddha, I was directly bestowed with the Buddha's blessing, and it was made known to the Goddess Maitreya that on Earth, only three chosen disciples of Buddhism can perceive the invisible presence of blessings bestowed upon me.

Although the power of persuasion through words can influence people, ending wars doesn't require my reincarnation as the Divine Maitreya, specifically coming to Hong Kong to expose the Chinese Communist Party, awakening the world.

Some interpretations of the divine may be unclear on Earth, and the intention of guiding people towards goodness is commendable. However, making hasty comments and advocating for the cessation of wars without distinguishing right from wrong incurs the karmic consequences of "verbal misconduct." These individuals will personally experience the repercussions in the third level of hell, as they are neither Israeli nor entitled to pass judgment.

To all earthly beings, heed the words of the Goddess Maitreya. Your every action is clearly observed by all deities, and Maitreya herself will execute the will of the universe.

A Letter to the Readers

To Readers Across Different Dimensions:

Engaging in any form of direct or indirect monetary gain without formal written authorization is not only in violation of Earthly laws but will also be subject to personal accountability in another dimension after life.

As for demons, they may not uphold honesty, but once they are bought off, they must fulfill their contracts with the devil. Once any contract is made, no matter whose it is, no god can provide any assistance. This is a mutually acknowledged condition between gods and demons.

Quadrablend Goddess Maitreya

A Warning Letter to the Devil

Warning Letter

To all demons or evil spirits across different dimensions:

I hereby inform you that I, as the guardian and messenger of the universe, bear the responsibility of ensuring peace, order, and justice in the cosmos. Unfortunately, we have recently discovered a grave issue that pertains to your actions and the malevolent entities you control.

We have learned that certain evil souls, through improper means, have been collected by a messenger under the control of a devil and transformed into a malevolent tool known as "Deception." The power of this tool is immensely potent; it can manipulate and incite evil, posing a severe threat to universal peace.

I issue this stern warning: if you continue to engage in such unethical behavior, especially the improper collection of souls, you will face grave consequences.

Recently, due to the frequent appearance of various demons around me, attempting to steal Deception Demon Ring

, I must make it explicitly clear: if you are not afraid of being reduced to ashes and sealed within the eternal inferno, then, by all means, come forth. I have no need for any demonic surrender. Demons and evil spirits are in no short supply, and the eternal inferno offers an inexhaustible array for my selection.

Quadrablend Goddess, Maitreya

Ruler of Multiversal Demons

To the various divine beings across different dimensions of the multiverse:

Demons and monsters may exist in various forms through infiltration or espionage activities in any location. While I am the ruler of demons and monsters, those who fall into their hands do so as a consequence of their own choices. Perhaps deities or their subordinates may have disputes with demons or monsters, and there is no need to seek a solution from me. In 99.99% of cases, it is usually the fault of the demons. I will not intervene unless one party is absolutely blameless.

Of course, if that 0.01% chance arises where a demon or monster is a victim, I will only stand up for the absolutely innocent party!

Whether they are deities, messengers, monsters, or demons, I treat them all equally. I possess the "Mirror of Truth" bestowed upon me by the universe, which has its essence originating from the "Lake of Truth" in hell. It allows me to directly examine the cause and effect of individuals. Furthermore, I have the power to seal demons.

Hell is the place of punishment, and those sentenced usually cry out that they are innocent. However, only the "Lake of Truth" cannot be deceived. To show respect for truth and facts, anyone who needs to seek assistance from the "Mirror of Truth/Lake" should kneel as an expression of sincerity.

When both sides are at fault and require my intervention, they must pay the corresponding price. Regardless of whether the other party is a creator or an almighty being, they will face equal punishment, including a reduction in magical abilities, amputation, eye removal, or sentencing to eternal hell to ensure fair treatment.

Letter to God - Jehovah

To God - Jehovah,

When I was documenting the Devil's chapter - 11.6 Title: The Devil's Conundrum in Another Dimension, Jehovah requested me to omit the detailed content of punishing the devil. He does not want readers from the multiverse to be aware of these details.

However, as a non-traditional goddess, I insist on acknowledging what I can create without fear. Unlike typical benevolent deities, I respect the laws of the universe and take responsibility for my actions, whether as a deity or a mortal.

I ascended directly to heaven and spoke with God. I reminded Him that I am the ruler of devils in the multiverse, and the publication of this book is a demand from the universe, not a request from God.

The management of devils is my right, and I possess creative freedom. When the universe elevated me to a great goddess, I and God found ourselves on different planes. Please do not interfere with my creative freedom. I have been destroyed three times, and I do not fear God's destructive power. I have the power to end the world.

In the multiverse, God is the absolute authority governing humanity, but similarly, my authority over devils is absolute. I am responsible for managing devils, most of whom are not morally upright beings.

God, you need to face your believers. Don't I need to confront the various challenges of managing devils? I inquired with the universe, and it indicated that only I, the Quadrablend Goddess Maitreya, could effectively handle disputes among devils.

Additionally, I oversee 50,000,000 different angelic tribes from the multiverse. Each angelic tribe possesses a "tiger token," and the total number of soldiers exceeds ten billion, with me holding their overall command. If I were to fear God, how could I effectively manage all devils in the multiverse? When I ultimately return to the realm of eternity, I will resolve all issues between us and God - Jehovah in one go.

Goddess Maitreya

Invitation

Dear Mr. Gregory May, Consul General of the United States in Hong Kong and Macau,

Renowned for your approachability, the goddess Maitreya has received cosmic signals and extends a sincere invitation to you to experience the sacred ritual of "Fuji 扶乩" at the "Yuen Ching temple 元清閣" in Hong Kong, located on Ching Cheung Road.

Rest assured, although these are deities from Eastern Taoism, if you are a Westerner with English as your native language, the responses from the gods will be presented in English, eliminating concerns about understanding the divine replies.

In Taoist belief, three deities provide the service of "Fuji." Devotees can visit the respective temples or shrines associated with each deity, seeking guidance according to their aspirations.

During this sacred ceremony, you can earnestly pose questions to the deities in your heart and personally write them down. The only requirement is sincerity, as both Eastern and Western deities share the same values of guiding individuals towards goodness. Rest assured, Maitreya ranks above God in the cosmic hierarchy and is sanctioned by the Supreme God - Yahweh. We sincerely look forward to your acceptance of the invitation from the Goddess Maitreya!

Best wishes for your well-being,

Goddess Maitreya

About myself Maitreya

Maitreya Goddess aims to convey a message distinct from people's expectations of a savior through this book. Unlike past prophets such as Moses parting the Red Sea or Jesus resurrecting after being crucified, the goddess's mission is to awaken everyone to an understanding of the principles of cause and effect and truth. Deities exist in different spaces and dimensions, dedicated to monitoring everything that happens in the human realm. Particularly for atheists, the goddess reminds them that all actions in the human realm carry karmic consequences, impacting each person throughout their lives.

Maitreya Goddess governs various realms of supernatural entities, including the interactions between humans and supernatural beings. Regarding these matters, the goddess will address them posthumously.

However, this also serves as a reminder that individuals have ample opportunities within their limited time on Earth to contemplate and make decisions. This way, people need not regret their choices made during their lifetimes, as they have had sufficient time for reflection and action.

Readers encounter Maitreya Goddess holding numerous positions and powers in the book. However, the Goddess assures each reader that over 80% of these roles are obtained through the sacrifice of her own life. While the pursuit of world peace is often emphasized, it is crucial to recognize that every achievement comes at the cost of blood and life, whether in the heavenly realms, the underworld, or the multiverse.

The Goddess governs or manages various departments or groups across different spaces or dimensions, with her hands stained by blood and countless lives.

As she arrives at the final department, the "Cosmic Decision Command Center," and speaks her fifth sentence, an attack from behind occurs as deities attempt to take her life. Such crude methods pale in comparison to the experiences across different dimensions. Fortunately, the Goddess has already securely stored all divine daggers and immediately activates the doomsday mode, with the wand determining that no deity should remain.

New deities are arranged and recommended by the universe, reshuffling the deck and starting from scratch. Those who resist are no exception, and the Goddess ultimately transforms into the "True Dragon Celestial Clan," devouring them directly. Venomous deities may hide their malevolence on the surface, but once consumed, the Goddess regurgitates the venom while maintaining her angelic form. Having endured poisoning and curses over 40 times, this determination and capability in facing mutual destruction are commonplace across various dimensions.

Various politicians and netizens criticize why Israel doesn't cease fire, claiming that the evil armed group Hamas has already surrendered, and Palestine is the axis of evil. Through the Mirror of Truth, the Goddess confirms that the devil's feigned surrender is believed only by the naïve and ignorant. Everyone supporting the devil must be accountable for their actions, especially those collaborating with the devil, as they will personally face punishment in hell led by the Maitreya Goddess.

Before the arrival of peace and a unified world, there must be a significant cleansing. Protecting one's national territory, even at the cost of lives and sacrifices, is a right that every individual possesses, and no one has the authority to take it away. Calls for Israel to cease fire should not come from anyone, especially those wearing the mask of peace. The Divine Maitreya suggests that these individuals should personally step onto the battlefield and face the demons.

The demons can train young children or orphans as killing machines, armed with AK47 automatic rifles and explosives strapped to their bodies, showcasing evil smiles while firing. In the face of divine judgment, even infants in their arms won't shield these individuals from the consequences. Both demons and celestial beings have employed such killing machines against me, attempting to assault and destroy the Divine Maitreya. In the realm of karmic consequences, the Divine Maitreya shows no mercy to those who transgress.

Hong Kongers aspiring for independence, freedom, democracy, and nation-building must be prepared to exchange blood and lives for these ideals. In the world, there is no free "peaceful lunch," and everything is inevitably subject to equal exchange.

Finally, when the Divine Maitreya, Maitreya Buddha, concludes earthly life, it will officially return to the diverse multiverse! I declare the formal commencement of the "Cosmic Revelation." In the eyes of the Divine Maitreya, there is no right or wrong, only "good and evil"!

"Maitreya's Revelation: The Great Judgment"

As the team led by Archangel Michael has executed the revelation, unlocking all seven seals on Earth, the goddess Maitreya declares the commencement of the planet's official Great Judgment. While the apocalypse and the destruction of civilization take seven years, the period of the Great Judgment will be relatively shorter. Maitreya has been granted the time by the universe, spanning from 2024 to the end of 2027. Given that Earth is jointly governed by the Almighty Jehovah and the Supreme Being, Maitreya assures that she will not interfere with their methods.

Before the onset of the Great Judgment, Maitreya holds the Book of Death, signifying that everyone, regardless of status, skin color, race, gender, age, background, or education, will undergo the judgment. However, two categories of individuals are exempt.

The first category enjoys divine grace, which comes at a cost—diminishing the magical abilities of the deities. Those deities seeking mercy from Maitreya include Huang Da Xian, Lu Dong Bin, Wang Chongyang, Lui Jen, Guan Yin, and the Almighty, scattered globally as disciples practicing in the mortal realm. Maitreya accepts the reduction of their magical powers as a grace in exchange for their mortal lives.

Maitreya Goddess, also known as Maitreya Buddha, conveys the true essence of the universe through the three words "Goodness, Love, Mercy," as opposed to the deceptive three words of the charlatan Li Hongzhi, who claimed "Truthfulness, Compassion, Forbearance."

- 善 Goodness : The starting point is a kind heart and good intentions in dealing with every person and situation.
- 愛 Love: The greatest source or foundation of energy in the universe.
- 仁 Mercy : Compassion, love, and benevolence.

Concerning the errors of the Falun Gong charlatan, it is imperative for the Maitreya Goddess to explicitly point out the three-word falsehoods he employs under the guise of saving the world, namely, "Deception with True Intent, Indiscrimination of Good and Evil, Intolerable Forbearance."

These are intolerable to the Maitreya Goddess. The name Falun Gong appropriates the reputation of the Maitreya Goddess as the Supreme Ruler of the Wheels, confirming the previous assertion that in mainland China " fraud ", and the rest are fake. Under the devil's rule, human hearts have become corrupted. In the Maitreya Goddess's Death Registry.
